History.

The 20th century: pt. 3 – DVD276

The 1920s: The "Roaring Twenties", as they are known, see a major polarization of people around the world--people who embrace change and those who fear it. Milestones include: prohibition leads to bootlegging and organized crime; African-American culture accelerates and membership in the KKK reaches an all-time high; Stalin and Mussolini gain power as America turns its back on international affairs; American cities boom while agriculture lags; and big spending and overproduction lead to the stock market crash. 2000. History.

The 20th century: pt. 4 – DVD277

The stock market crash of 1929 ushers in a severe economic crisis in the US and contributes to the rise of international tension. Milestones include: US unemployment tops 15 million; drought devastates the Great Plains; FDR implements his "New Deal"; Americans turn to baseball, radio and movies for entertainment and escapism; and Stalin begins to "purge" his enemies while Japan and Germany flex their military muscles. 2000. History.

The 20th century: pt. 5 – DVD278

With America still struggling through a severe economic depression, the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor leads the US into the second global conflict of the century. Milestones include: WWII, the Holocaust, and the atomic bomb; women enter the work force in large numbers; Israel declares its independence; the Baby Boom begins; and entertainment shift to Big Bands and the jitterbug. 1999. History.

The 20th century: pt. 6 – DVD279

The US solidifies its position as a world leader, while on the home front the traditional family takes center stage. Milestones include: the arms race between the US and USSR; Sen. Joseph McCarthy's "witch hunts"; the birth of the Civil Rights movement; the rising influence of television; and rock and roll and the conservative/religious reaction. 1999. History.

The 20th century: pt. 7 – DVD280

Innocence is lost as America struggles on many levels, not only politically and militarily, but also socially. Milestones include: tensions reach the boiling point between the US and Cuba; the assassinations of four political leaders; the Vietnam War, anti-war demonstrations and the Civil Rights movement; the Space Race; and the hippie culture and the British invasion of music. 1999. History.

The 20th century: pt. 8 – DVD281

As the Vietnam War comes to an end, the Middle East becomes a powder keg and the Nixon administration collapses. Milestones include: the fall of Saigon; the Watergate scandal; Americans taken hostage in Iran; home life changes dramatically with easier access to microwaves, fast food and VCRs; and the disco revolution. 2000. History.

The 20th century: pt. 9 – DVD282

"Greed is good" could be the slogan of the 1980s. The booming American economy helps spawn a series of ecological and technical disasters. The space shuttle Challenger explodes, the supertanker Exxon Valdez runs around, and Reagan, Pope John Paul II, and John Lennon all suffer at the hands of gunmen. In the US, improved relations with the USSR are offset by the savings and loan scandal and the Iran-Contra affair. On the streets, an exploding market for cell phones, home computers, and crack cocaine. 1999. History.

The 20th century: pt. 10 – DVD283

The world becomes "smaller" in an age of instant access, but some find themselves in an age of information overload. Milestones include: the Persian Gulf War fought with computerized weapons; personal computers, beepers, cell phones, and fax machines become commonplace; former communist nations make the difficult change to capitalism; shocking rise of violence and terrorism in the US; athletes become role models in American culture. 1999. History.

Theater of blood – DVD118

A second-rate actor murders his critics in Shakespearean style to get revenge for bad reviews. This British horror film has some brilliantly funny moments. Stars Vincent Price and Diana Rigg. 1973. Horror/Suspense/Thriller.

They call it murder – DVD119

When a body is found floating in his swimming pool, wheelchair-bound Frank Antrim (Leslie Nielsen) calls in the sheriff (Edward Asner), who calls in District Attorney Doug Selby (Jim Hutton). Selby soon discovers there's more than one crime to solve in this mystery based on Earle Stanley Gardner characters. 1971. Drama.

They came from beyond space – DVD177

When a meteorite shower lands on a Cornwall farm, the British government suspects the arrival of an alien intelligence. The scientists sent to investigate fall under the aliens' mind control and are put to work on a mysterious project. 1967. Science Fiction.

30 minutes or less – DVD345

Two wanna-be criminal masterminds force Nick, a small town pizza delivery guy, to rob a bank. With mere hours to pull off the impossible task, Nick enlists the help of his ex-best friend. Stars Jesse Eisenberg, Danny McBride, Nick Swardson, and Aziz Ansari. 2011. Action/Comedy. Visual navigation required.

This is 40 – DVD352

After years of marriage, Pete and Debbie are approaching a milestone meltdown. As they try to balance romance, careers, parents, and children in their own hilarious ways, they also must figure out how to enjoy the rest of their lives. A candid and heartwarming comedy about the challenges and rewards of marriage and parenthood in the modern age. Sexual content, crude humor, pervasive language and some drug material. 2013. Comedy. Visual navigation required.

This means war – DVD332

FDR (Chris Pine) and Tuck (Tom Hardy) are covert CIA operatives and best buddies...until they both fall for charming and sexy Lauren (Reese Witherspoon). Their friendship is put to the test as they wage a battle for her affection, using their surveillance skills and an array of high-tech gadgetry. 2012. Treasure of the Yankee Zephyr – DVD126

In the middle of WWII, a U.S.A.F. bomber loaded with gold bullion and good whiskey goes down in a remote area of New Zealand. Forty-odd years later, an eccentric old codger (Donald Pleasence) out hunting deer stumbles on the plane and its cargo. 1981. Comedy.

Trinity is still my name – DVD127

Two brothers do their best to honor their father's dying wish: that they become successful outlaws! Bambino (Bud Spence) and younger brother Trinity (Terrence Hill) join forces against corrupt monks, a Texas land baron and a bandit chieftain. Even funnier than the first Trinity film, this spaghetti Western keeps its tongue firmly in cheek while delivering action, laughs and smarts. 1971. Action/Western/Comedy.

True grit – DVD292

Mattie Ross is determined to avenge her father's blood by capturing Tom Chaney, the man who shot and killed him for two pieces of gold. Just fourteen, she enlists the help of Rooster Cogburn (Jeff Bridges). 2010. Adventure/Drama/Western. Visual navigation required.
